GETTYSBURG BOY HELD AS ROBBER

Robert Miller is Held in $1500 Bail. Charged with Robbing Elderly Widow. Says he is Willing to Confess.

Mrs. Charles M. Schreyer, a wealthy widow who admitted hesitatingly that she was fifty-nine, but who does not look more than forty five, appeared in the New Rochelle Police Court at New York, Monday, before Justice Samuel S. Swinburne to tell how she had been robbed of a diamond brooch, a pair of earrings and four diamond rings, valued in all at $1,500.

While she told her story, Robert Miller, pink cheeked and beardless who said he was twenty-one, that he lived at No. 1558 Broadway and that he had a young wife, from whom he is separated, sat on the prisoners bench, his head buried in his hands and sobbing.

Beside young Miller sat John Wilmer, thirty-two a mechanical engineer, living at the Hotel Somerset in West Forty-seventh street, Manhattan. Miller was dressed in the height of fashion. C. L. Beare a lawyer of No. 60 Wall street, was there to protect Wilmer's interests. Mr. Schreyer has a grown son and lives at No. 15 Church street, New Rochelle. She told how she and young Miller had gone to Larchmont, where she was to collect some rents on Wednesday evening last, and was held up.

"What have you to say?" asked the Justice of Miller.

"Everything," blubbered the boy. "I want to tell all."

He said he had come to New York from Gettysburg, and had worked for a private detective agency and as a clerk at the cigar counter in the Hotel Belmont.

Just how he met the wealthy widow almost three times his age he did not tell, but he said that during the summer they had visited numerous places of amusement. "Sometimes I registered as 'Howard' at hotels," he added.

"Three weeks ago I met Wilmer," he said. "We became good friends and I confided that I was broke and he lent me a few dollars. When I told him of my affair with Mrs. Schreyer, he said it would be easy to rob her some night, and we went into the plot."

The arrest of Wilmer followed at the Hotel Somerset on Saturday night. Miller was held in $1,500 bail on a charge of robbery in the first degree, and Wilmer in the same amount charged with receiving stolen goods. There will be a further hearing today.

WESTERN TRAINS ON W. M.

Announcement is made that the Western Maryland Railway company will inaugurate through passenger train service between Baltimore and Pittsburgh on the twenty-seventh of this month. Fully equipped with modern cars, the first train for the Smoky City will leave Hillen Station on the morning of the twenty-seventh, at 9 o'clock, and will arrive in Pittsburgh at 7:30 o'clock that evening.

Final arrangements for the inauguration of the through passenger service between the two cities were made a few days ago by General Manager Shepherd and General Passenger Agent Fielder M. Howell, who went to Pittsburgh to confer with officials of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad. At this conference it was decided to put the first train into service on the day mentioned. For the time being there will be a train each way, but the service will be increased as the passenger business becomes heavier. The train coming east will leave Pittsburgh at night, arriving in Baltimore the next morning.

APPLE BLOSSOMS

Mrs. Orville S. Riley, of route 7 Gettysburg, brought to The Times office this morning some apple blossoms picked from a tree in the orchard at the Riley farm. Mrs. John Meneche, of Breckenridge street, reports ripe raspberries in her garden.

SHOOTING MATCH—Oliver J. Boston, Manager of the Adams County Hardware Co., will hold a claybird shooting match on Friday afternoon, Oct. 25, at 1.30 p. m. at the residence of Bernard Hoffman; first toll gate, on the Baltimore Pike. Prizes High Grade Fox Gun, also other prizes. The same will be under the management of Bernard Hoffman and Adam Myers. Everybody welcome and all invited. Oliver J. Boston, Gen. Manager of the Adams County Hardware Co. Advertisement.

SIX JUDGES FOR FARMERS' DAY

Three Ladies and Three Gentlemen from Various Sections of the County will Judge Products of Farm, Garden and Kitchen.

Three ladies and three gentlemen from various sections of Adams County will act as judges in Gettysburg on Farmers' Day. Their names will not be announced until after the products and exhibits have been passed upon, and as none of the exhibits will be labeled with the name of the owner no favoritism can be charged. Names will be used to distinguish the various articles and their owners.

In the case of the prettiest girl, the finest teams and so on, certain hours will be announced when these are to be judged so that the committee will be able to perform their work more promptly and without confusion.

The ladies of the committee will have charge of the pies, cakes and other things that are exhibited by the women of the county while the three male members of the committee will pass on all the other exhibits. The system which has been adopted is thought to be thoroughly fair to every one.

The Citizens' Band and the College Band have been engaged for all afternoon concerts and it is likely that there will also be another band secured. The organizations will be placed in various parts of the town.

More premiums are announced as follows:

James F. Biggan cafe: for the largest sweet potato, gallon of oysters. Mopper's Studio will photograph all babies under one year of age free of charge and the parents will get one picture free. The baby weighing the most will be given a 16x20 framed picture of itself.

Gettysburg Gas Company: for the largest chrysanthemum raised by a farmer $3.00 in cash for the largest chrysanthemum raised by a Gettysburgian, a drop light.

I. P. Turner has on display in the window of the H. C. Landau drug store an electrical appliance which may be used on the farm as well as in town. It is contained in a securely wrapped and sealed package and will be given to the first person from the country who guesses correctly its contents. All answers must be in writing in sealed envelopes which will be opened at eight o'clock on the evening of Farmers' Day.

A. S. Mills for the best peck of oats, four pounds of coffee; for the best lemon custard pie, 25 pounds of sugar. Mrs. D. J. Riele: for the prettiest silk quilt $1.00 hat; for the best crocheted pattern, willow plume.

Miss Anna Reck desires to correct the statement which appeared in several papers recently to the effect that she would give a prize for the best custard. The prize is for a "Cushion" instead of a custard. She also disclaims knowledge of the adjective "iony" which described the plume she intends to give.

LITTLESTOWN AROUSED

All roads lead to the evangelistic meetings at Littlestown where J. Raymond Hemminger, singing evangelist, and Gordon Johnson, Australian pianist, are assisting several of the pastors. On Saturday night a wonderful open air demonstration was held in front of the Ocker House where about 1200 people assembled to hear the singing by the large choir and Mr. Hemminger and a brief but forceful address by Rev. W. Edward Watkins, pastor of the Methodist Church.

Sunday afternoon a mass meeting for men was held which packed the Methodist Church. Mr. Z. W. Keller, a converted horseman from Mount Joy was the speaker.

On Sunday night the building was filled long before the meeting began and many were turned away unable to get in.

The meetings are to continue this week. The entire community is aroused about religious things. The stores close early for the meetings, and gospel songs are sung and whistled on all sides.

MRS. CAROLINE NOEL

Mrs. Caroline Noel died on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Death was caused by general weakness from old age. She was aged 76 years. Funeral will be held Thursday afternoon. Services at the Alms House at 2 o'clock. The body will be taken to Pittsburgh for interment. She is survived by one son, C. E. Wolf of Springfield, Mass.

ECKERT--CLUTZ HOME WEDDING

Pretty Wedding at the Home of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Clutz when their Daughter becomes Bride of Mark K. Eckert.

At noon today Miss Ruth A. Clutz and Mark K. Eckert were married at the bride's home on Seminary Ridge.

Preceding the wedding march Mrs. Harry Link, of York, sang Cadman's "At Dawning". Mr. Link, playing the accompaniment. Mrs. J. R. Peters, of Pittsburgh, played the Lohengrin March as the bridal party entered the east parlor from the stairway. Little Miss Mary Peters, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Jessica Link, of York, acted as ring bearers and were followed by Miss Bess Hollinger, of Chambersburg, the maid of honor, who wore a gown of white charmeuse, trimmed with gold lace. Her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride followed with her father, Dr. J. A. Clutz. She wore a gown of white crepe meteor, made on train, and trimmed with princess lace and pearls. Her veil was draped in cap effect, with a pearl band. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids. Mr. Eckert's best man was Harold S. Trump, of Montclair, New Jersey. His ushers were Hugh Scott and Philip R. Bickle, both of Gettysburg.

The parlor in which the wedding took place was prettily decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns. Dr. Clutz performed the ceremony and was assisted by Rev. Henry Anstadt, of Washington. The double ring service was used. The Mendelssohn march was played by Mrs. Peters after the ceremony and an informal reception was held, followed by the wedding luncheon. The dining room was decorated with cosmos and hydrangeas.

During the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Eckert left on a southern trip. The bride's going away gown was of blue serge. Upon their return they will reside at the home of their parents until the completion of Mr. Eckert's new residence on Springs avenue.

The bride's gifts were very numerous and beautiful. The gift from the groom was a diamond and pearl sunburst. Her gift to the maid of honor was a gold necklace with a pearl pendant; to her ring bearers, gold bracelets; to Mrs. Link, a beaded opera bag; and to Mrs. Peters, a tortoise and gold barette. Mr. Eckert's gift to his best man was a desk clock, and to his ushers, watch fobs.

Among the out of town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Clutz, of Bendina, Kansas; Frank Clutz and Miss Marge Hollinger, of Chambersburg; Dr. A. Stewart Hartman, Miss Lucille Hartman of Baltimore; L. D. Menough, of York; Mrs. Belle Kirtz, of Nampa, Idaho; Mrs. Elwood Porter, of Allentown, New Jersey; Mrs. John Dickson, of Newhall Square; Mrs. Walter Kirtz, of Germantown; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Anstadt, and daughter, of Washington; Miss Mary Trump and Miss Bess Trump, of Martinsburg, W. Va.

MISSED BULL MOOSE

Hon. W. Howard Dicks, of New Oxford, associate judge of Adams County, returned last week from a three weeks hunting trip in the province of Quebec, Canada. Incidental to the trip he visited Quebec and Montreal, in New Brunswick.

Judge Dicks is a member of the Madawaska Fishing and Game Club, of Canada, and the main object of the sportsmen this year was to shoot a bull—moose, but it was too late in the season as none were seen. They secured, however, a large number of pheasants and saw about 20 cow—moose, but it is against the law to shoot them.

The gunning party who left the hunting ground before Judge Dicks arrived had the good fortune to get a large moose, which weighed about 1200 pounds and measured 60 inches from tip to tip of antlers.

The Madawaska Club has leased from the Canadian government a tract of land of 30 square miles, at $100 a year, and none but the members is allowed the privilege of hunting on these grounds where all kinds of game abound.

TRADE EXCURSION COMING THURSDAY

Special Through Train from McKeesport with Hundred Business Men Coming to Gettysburg. Bringing Souvenirs.

Carrying over one hundred passengers and several thousand souvenirs, the first through passenger train over the Western Maryland railroad left McKeesport Tuesday morning at 8:15 o'clock. The party is headed by E. P. Douglass, president of the McKeesport Chamber of Commerce and will be entertained in various towns where the train will stop. Gettysburg will be visited on Thursday.

Souvenirs or sanitary drinking cups, match safes, mirrors, paper weights, and other articles, made from steel, iron, tin and other McKeesport products, will be distributed along the route, to say nothing of literature telling of McKeesport's greatness. The train is costing the "live wires" of McKeesport over $3000. They will be absent three days.

The train stopped at Cumberland Tuesday from 4 until 10 p. m. and proceeded to Baltimore, where today was spent. On the return trip the train stops at Gettysburg on Thursday from 12:30 until 3:30 and then proceeds to Hagerstown, where dinner is to be had. The train is to get to Hagerstown about 5:30 o'clock and leave at 10 p. m. for McKeesport.

MISSION CLOSSES

Tuesday night's beautiful devotion in St. Francis Xavier Church was a fitting closing to the successful mission and Forty Hours devotion that has been in progress for the past ten days. The church, as usual, was crowded. The Missionary in his farewell sermon exhorted all to remain true to their God until the moment of death. Together with Fathers Dauenhauser and Dougherty there were present the Rt. Rev. Bishop Shanahan, D. D. Very Rev. James Huber, Fathers Murphy, Renter and Smith, of Hanover, Fathers McGrat and Scanlon, of York, Fathers Welsh and Stock, of Carlisle; Father Howard, Chambersburg; Father Brandt, of Fairfield; Father McIlhenny, of Bonneauville; and Father O'Callahan, Waynesboro.

ACCIDENTS IN THE COUNTY

Paul Wentz, aged about 20 years, living near Sell's Station, met with a peculiar accident on Saturday, resulting in the breaking of one of the bones in his right hand. The young man was pitching bundles of fodder from a wagon to the stack, when the fork handle which was wet, slipped and in attempting to hold on to the fork he was bent in such condition as to break the bone as well as tear it loose from the muscles. A doctor from Littlestown reduced the fracture.

Levi Miller, of Hanover, met with an unusual accident Monday afternoon while at Irishtown, resulting in the dislocation of a bone of his right wrist. Observing a five year old boy playing with a croquet ball, Mr. Miller, who is a great friend of children, walked up to the youngster and made several attempts to kick the ball over the fence, to the great amusement of the boy. Unfortunately, however, the heel of his shoe caught the root of tree and he was thrown to the pavement with considerable force, resulting as above stated.

William Livelsperger of McSherrystown, met with an accident on Saturday while at work at the smithy of the Hopkins Wagon Works, at Hanover. A heavy piece of iron fell and mangled the great toe of his right foot. He was taken to his home and Dr. A. C. Rice called, who dressed the injured member. He will not be able to go to work for several weeks.

ATHLETIC STARS AT HANOVER

Local baseball fans will have an opportunity of seeing a trio of Philadelphia Athletics starting next Thursday's game between Hanover and Shrewsbury at Hanover. Eddie Plank is sure to be there and he expects to bring his team-mates, Frank Baker and Eddie Collins, along to help make the game interesting. The Athletics leave Saturday for a tour in Cuba from Baltimore, and Plank believes he can induce his friends to make a short side trip and play Thursday. It is understood that the Shrewsbury people will have several major leaguers in their line-up, as some of their popular players will be unable to make the trip, and then again some of the weak positions will be strengthened to make the contest score equal. The game will start at 2:45 p. m.

ASSAULT CHARGE WITHDRAWN

Charles Brown was given a hearing before Squire Harnish on Tuesday afternoon in the case growing out of the rumpos in the Third Ward on Monday afternoon. The charge of assault was withdrawn and Brown pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct. Squire Harnish imposed a sentence of thirty days or a fine of $5.00 and cost. Brown was taken back to jail pending the arrival of the fund necessary to meet the fine and costs which totaled about $11.00.

ROOSEVELT MUST REST A WEEK

May be Able to Take Up Campaign in Closing Days.

ARMED MEN ON GUARD

Entrance to Grounds at Sagamore Hill Forbidden to All But Physicians and Friends of the Colonel.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Oct. 23.—"It's mighty good to be home again," said Colonel Roosevelt when he arrived at Sagamore Hill from Chicago.

A week of absolute rest is all that is required, in the opinion of his physicians, to put Colonel Roosevelt in the best of condition. At the end of that time, if he follows the strict regime which has been planned for him, it is expected that he will be able to take up the campaign in its closing days.

While a week has been set as the period of absolute rest, it was explained that for a considerably longer time Colonel Roosevelt must avoid hard work and that it will be impossible for him to attempt to make any speeches. Several weeks will be required for the complete healing of the wound and the knitting of the fractured rib.

A bulletin from the former president's condition given out at the Progressive headquarters in New York said: "Rest and quiet are essential to him to avoid the possibility of wound infection. While Colonel Roosevelt is extremely anxious to take up the work of the campaign at the end of the week we are unable at this time to say that this will be possible."

The bulletin was signed by Dr. Joseph A. Blake, Dr. George A. Brewer, Dr. Alexander Lambert and Dr. Scurry L. Terrell. The calling in of Drs. Blake and Brewer after the arrival of the Roosevelt party at Sagamore Hill caused reports to be circulated that the colonel's condition was not all that had been hoped for.

Six guards were stationed on the Roosevelt grounds and entrance to the property was forbidden to all persons except members of the medical staff caring for Colonel Roosevelt or friends who had made appointments by telephone. The guards were armed in the garb of workmen, and a significant bulge in the clothing of each one indicated that he was armed. No explanation was given out.

When he arrived at Sagamore Hill the colonel's wound was dressed and he went to bed immediately, with instructions to remain quiet all day. The physicians said the wound showed no ill effects from the trip.

Arrived at home, the colonel, spying William E. Bayliss, one of his gardeners, saluted him with: "Hello, there, Billy." Ralph Amos, the negro butler, met the party at the door and the colonel smiled a "Hello, Ralph," to him. "Say, it's good to get home after that stay in the hospital," the colonel remarked to one of the doctors.

Scores of school children had "chipped" in their pennies and bought a big wreath of flowers to be placed in the colonel's room. The Oyster Bay children all know and like Colonel Roosevelt, and some of them played "hokey" so as to be on the ground when the colonel arrived. The Oyster Bay children were not the only ones who sent flowers to the colonel. The home-coming was a gala event at Oyster Bay. A number of store keepers closed up shop, so they could give their entire time to the celebration of the safe arrival of their distinguished neighbor.

SERIOUS ILLNESS ATTACKS CZAR'S HEIR

Grand Duke's Condition Causes Anxiety.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 23.—The czarévitch, the Grand Duke Alexis, heir to the throne of all the Russians, is seriously ill at the Imperial hunting lodge of Spala, Russian Poland, as the result of an accident which occurred on Oct. 15.

The czarévitch then sustained an injury on the left side which caused no anxiety until Sunday evening, when his temperature rose suddenly to 101.5. This decreased somewhat, but rose again to 102.9.

Several court physicians are in attendance on the young prince, who is only eight years old.

Probably the illness of no child in the world is fraught with so much political significance as is that of the eight-year-old czarévitch, and his death eventually might lead to an upheaval in Russia that would shake the Romanoff dynasty from its throne.

The Grand Duke Alexis, who was born at Peterhof, July 30, 1904, is the only direct heir to the throne, although the czar has four other children, all girls. The birth of a son was hailed with joy by the czar and by many Russians, who looked upon it as cementing the czar and the people and as insuring a peaceful succession to the throne when the emperor should die.

Fined $100 For Sending Obscene Mail. Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23.—A nominal fine of $100 was imposed in the federal court on Mrs. Henry Dolan, of Susquehanna, when she pleaded nolle contendere to the charge of sending a raft of obscene letters through the mails to her neighbors. Judge Witmer pressed her to tell why she had sent the letters, but she would offer no explanation.

Even Bet on Pennsylvania. New York, Oct. 23.—These bets were made in Wall street: Five hundred dollars even that Roosevelt will carry Pennsylvania, $200 even that Roosevelt beats Taft, $200 to $50 that Wilson defeats Roosevelt.

ALLIES MARCH ON TURKISH FORTS

Have Cleared the Way to Three Big Towns.

GREEKS ARE BOMBARDING

Balkan Forces Are Fighting Their Way to Objective Points in Enemy's Territory.

London, Oct. 23.—The armies of Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece continue to clear their way to their main objective points, the Turkish fortresses of Uskup, Adrianople and Servia, the last of these three a Turkish town on the Grecian frontier.

Greek warships have been bombarding the Turkish port of Prevesa. Prevesa is situated at the entrance of the Gulf of Arta, the opposite side of which is Greek territory.

Greek armies have crossed the Turkish frontier at two points. In Epirus, at the western end, they have occupied the heights of Grimbovo, while at the eastern end they are pursuing the Turkish troops to their base at Servia, where an important battle is expected to be fought, and the taking of which by the Greeks would carry them appreciably nearer to the Monastir and Saloniki road.

The Serbian armies are probably having the hardest fighting at the present moment. They are operating toward Uskup and Pristina and further north in the district of Novi Bazar, and have to contend not only against Turkish regulars, but also against the Arnauts, who are fierce fighting Albanian tribesmen. One of their armies has advanced as far as the outskirts of Kuananava, the principal town between the Serbian frontier and Uskup.

The Servians have secured possession of the mountain pass leading to Pristina.

No news of importance has come from the Bulgarian frontier, and this leads military authorities to suggest that King Ferdinand will not attempt to rush the fortress of Adrianople, but will mask it and move round it to the east or the west.

The reported intention of the Bulgarian army to give Adrianople the go-by and to head direct for Constantinople is dismissed as impracticable by military men. The distance is the same as that from Dalm to Menden, in Manchuria, which took the Japanese army a year to cover.

The town of Kirk-Killessed is still held by the Turks, although it was rumored that the Bulgarians had taken the outer positions. The Bulgarians, however, lack confirmation.

The western Bulgarian army, like the Serbian armies, is fighting against large bodies of tribesmen, assisted by Turkish artillery, and from all accounts there has been some stiff skirmishing, in which the Bulgarians have been victorious. The warfare in this region is of a merciless character, as the Pomaks, or Bulgarian Muslim tribesmen, are religious fanatics.

The Montenegrin army apparently is inactive at present.

200 Turks Killed in Wreck.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—A Turkish troop train bound for the front was wrecked and 200 soldiers were killed, according to word received here from Saloniki. Two reports were received. One was that the train had been derailed and rolled down an embankment, and another that it had been wrecked by Bulgarian spies.

Servians Kill 2000 Tribesmen.

Belgrade, Serbia, Oct. 23.—More than 2000 Arnaut tribesmen were killed by Serbian artillery in a fight near Merdare and Kurshumli, in southern Serbia. The Serbian artillery did extreme havoc among the tribesmen before they retreated into the hills.

MILES GOES TO WAR FRONT

U. S. Attache at Bucharest Proceeds to Bulgarian Headquarters.

Sofia, Oct. 23.—Lieutenant Sherman Miles, the American attache at Bucharest, accompanied by other military attaches and a number of war correspondents, has gone to the Bulgarian headquarters at Stara Zagora, in Eastern Rumania.

Dispatches received in Sofia indicate that Losenograd was bombarded and captured by the Bulgarians. The battle lasted for several hours. The casualties could not be learned.

"Lifer" Killed Attempting to Escape.

Columbus, O., Oct. 23.—William Barnegraft, who was returned a week ago after escaping from the penitentiary by crawling through a sewer, was shot and killed while attempting to escape over the wall. He was serving a life sentence for murder.

Mrs. C. W. Post Dies at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Mrs. C. W. Post, divorced wife of the Battle Creek food manufacturer, died suddenly at the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Breckons, 1814 G street, Northwest, where she was a guest. Her death was due to organic troubles.

Gives Coin, Then Kills Self.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Oct. 23.—After giving all the money he had in his pockets to Gospel Herald workers on Main street, Dayton Ruman, twenty-six years old, of Columbia, N. J., committed suicide by shooting himself in the right breast. He listened to the preaching and then went home and took his life.

No More Ruining Sores

The People's Drug Store Sells an Ointment Called San Cura That is a Positive Cure.

It matters not how old, persistent or poisonous the sore is, San Cura Ointment, the powerful antiseptic, will draw out every particle of poison and promptly heal the sore.

[So sure of this are the owners, the Thompson Medical Co., that they have authorized The People's Drug Store to return the purchase price if San Cura Ointment doesn't do all this paper says it will do. No fairer offer was ever made.

B. D. Dutton, Titusville, Pa., says: "My arm was covered with twenty-four running sores and swollen to twice its natural size. San Cura Ointment removed the pain, drew out the poison and healed the arm in an incredibly short time. It is the greatest compound for healing I ever used."

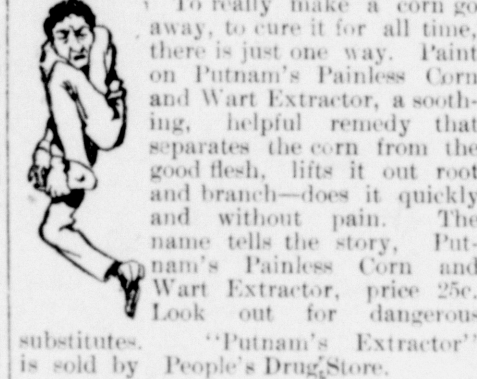

The mighty healing powers of San Cura Ointment are little short of marvelous. It gives instant relief, and is guaranteed to cure salt rheum, eczema, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, chapped hand, and chilblains. For cuts, burns, scalds and bruises, it stops all pain quickly and heals promptly, 25c and 50 cents a jar. By mail on receipt of price, if your druggist is out of it or does not keep it.

SAN CURA SOAP

For tender, itching or irritable skin, wash with San Cura, the only antiseptic soap that soothes and heals, and kills all germs of disease. It will cure pimples, blackheads, and the complexion clear and attractive. 25c at The People's Drug Store.

Digging Out Corns Causes Blood Poison

To really make a corn go away, to cure it for all time, there is just one way. Paint on Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor, a soothing, helpful remedy that separates the corn from the good flesh, lifts it out root and branch—does it quickly and without pain. The name tells the story. Putnam's Painless Corn and Wart Extractor, price 25c. Look out for dangerous substitutes. "Putnam's Extractor" is sold by People's Drug Store.

Come Quick

Just received 10,000 New Club and Winchester Shells, black and smokeless powder, 40 and 50 cents per box, factory price.

Most Farmers

Do not object to their neighbors and friends hunting on their land or to any others who have due regard for their property, but all farmers do object to the hunter who tramples down grain, tears down fences and does damage. The surest way to protect yourself is to placard your property. Cardboard trespass signs 5c. each, 6 for 25c.; muslin signs 10c. each, 3 for 25c. And in order to keep undesirable hunters from coming out to your land and possibly disregard such signs, the best thing you could do would be to place your name in our trespass list. Fifty cents for the entire season. See last page.

MISS FLINN AIDS T. R.

Organizes Women's Club to "Get Oil For the Machine."

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 23.—Miss Mary Flinn, the handsome daughter of William Flinn, marched a band of Pittsburgh club women into the Bull Moose headquarters in Smithfield street and organized a woman's auxiliary to the party headed by Senator Flinn.

Explaining the purpose of the meeting, Miss Flinn said it was to organize the women that they might "get oil for the machine." Flinn has already "oiled the machine" in Pennsylvania to the extent of $177,444.

Miss Flinn said the women probably would have a tag day a week from next Saturday, at which time the society and club women interested in politics will collect funds for the Bull Moose.

The Washington party, Miss Flinn said, attracted the sympathies of the women because it is pledged to enact legislation beneficial to women and to child workers.

MEDICAL ADVERTISING "FAGGED-OUT" WOMEN

Overworked, run down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Miss Richter's experience. She says: "Last Winter I was completely run down and felt fagged out all the time, was nervous and had indigestion.

"One of my friends advised me to take Vinol and it has done me great good. The tired, worn out feeling is all gone and I am strong, vigorous and well. The stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have perfect digestion. I wish every tired, weak, nervous woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good as that I spent for Vinol." Marie Richter, Detroit, Mich.

Thousands of women and men who were formerly weak and sickly owe their present rugged health to the wonderful strength creating effects of Vinol. We guarantee Vinol to build you up and make you strong. If it does not we give back your money. People's Drug Store Gettysburg Pa. Advertisement.
